The Proposal: Emma and Peter were set up on a blind date by a college friend of Peter's who Emma had met in New York City. Peter proposed on November 11, as the number 11 has a deep, spiritual meaning to Emma. He asked her to meet him at his house early on that Sunday morning and she was welcomed with a quick proposal with a ring featuring 11 diamonds. The couple then headed to a surprise brunch at Dyrón's in Crestline Village where family and friends were waiting to celebrate with them.
